

CHASING WATER

PURSUE YOUR PATH TO THRIVING

Diane Gansauer
Speaker

While establishing a new program for a Fortune 200 company, Diane Gansauer took advantage of every spare moment to also hike 3,000 miles on the Continental Divide from Mexico to Canada.

By the time she completed her remarkable trek, she had also honored more than 400 lives through her professional work.

Diane's book The Waypoints: From 400 Farewells and 3,000 Miles captures the overlapping insights from these very different experiences. The stories in her speech "Chasing Water" resonate with devoted pursuit of what's essential to meet life's challenges.

TAKEAWAYS:

Diane's stories inspire listeners to pursue what's essential. She shares how to

- *Sharpen your focus
- *Step into courage
- *Cultivate resilience
- *Persevere to your goal

TESTIMONIAL:

"Diane's story is about finding purpose and chasing your dreams while maintaining your mental health, physical well-being, and personal fulfillment. She is a wonderful and inspiring speaker for your event."

– Steve Physioc, Emmy-award winning sports broadcaster and author of five award-winning novels

